

Mercury Rising "Of Lesser Men"

Visit "Of Lesser Men" on MotoLyrics.com

Lesser men eventually will fall
But there are no alternatives for those who hear the call What lesser men have failed to see I hope you realize and accompany me .
The fateful myth exhausts them everyday that no one cares
And nothing really matters anyway
What lesser men tend to believe I hope you'll realize and not be deceived .
Behind their empty lives are empty minds as well that lead them
Into hell without a prayer
Just beyond their hopelessness a leap of faith is waiting for us there .
A lesser man who's only plan is misery loves company Discontentment haunting every-day but for trusting souls
With lofty goals the promised land is plain to see it's just a leap of faith away .
A man without a purpose is a back against the wall
But a crosscut of the endless array that is this life tells...ALL! .
What lesser men tend to believe I hope you'll realize
And not be deceived I hope you'll realize and accompany me .
Behind their empty lives are empty minds as well that
lead them
Into hell without a prayer just beyond their hopelessness
A leap of faith is waiting for us there
