"Only To Be Yours"

Undivided, strip everything else away
Burn the idols, the things in my life
That have replaced You
I lay my life down, here on Your altar
Empty my hands of all I've been holding back

Take everything I have
Only to be Yours Lord, Yours Lord
Take it from my hands
Until I'm holding onto only You

Captivated, You've stolen my heart away
I've been liberated the chains of this world forever broken
You laid Your life down
Now I surrender, lifting my hands
I'm holding nothing back

Take everything I have
Only to be Yours Lord, Yours Lord
Take it from my hands
Until I'm holding onto only You

Everything I want is found in You
Every breath in me, a gift from You
I have nothing here apart from You
I am Yours Lord, Only Yours

Take everything I have
Only to be Yours Lord, Yours Lord
Take it from my hands
Until I'm holding onto only You
