"Who Is Like You"

The thought of You is baffling
My mind can't wrap around You
This human cup cannot contain
Heaven's glory flood

Who is like You, Lord
Who was and is to come
Forever worshipped and adored
We pour our hearts out
Here before Your throne
This is for You alone

The sight of You leaves me speechless
One glimpse and I come undone
This weight of glory stirs my soul
And I fall face down

Who is like You, Lord
Who was and is to come
Forever worshipped and adored
We pour our hearts out
Here before Your throne
This is for You alone

And all I can say is holy
All I can do is fall on my face
And cry holy

Who is like You, Lord
Who was and is to come
Forever worshipped and adored
We pour our hearts out
Here before Your throne
This is for You alone
