I remember when we fell
And you found some piece of mind
Hide behind that awkward smile
You give me when you lie
And this house seems cold without you

Could you do it that way?
Did you ever care?
What a cold let down
(Let down)
Out to bring me down
(Me down)
What a cold let down
(Let down)
Well I don't feel it that way

I will paint your bedroom blue
To remind me of the way
That I feel about you
And would you leave us here this way
Like a book upon your shelf
That you haven't read in ages

I remember when you left
And I thought my heart would break
Into pieces on the floor
Reliving my mistake
And this house seems cold
Could you do it that way?
Did you ever care?
What a cold let down
(Let down)
Out to bring me down
(Me down)
What a cold let down
(Let down)

I would paint your bedroom red
To remind me of the anger
As it swells up inside
Would you leave us here this way?
Like a record on the shelf

That you haven't played in ages

This house seems fine without you

I guess I never really knew enough

Or needed it to say

What a cold let down

(Let down)

Out to bring me down

(Me down)

What a cold let down

(Let down)

I don't see it that way

I would paint your bedroom white

For a fresh start in the morning

When I wake up, alone

Would you leave us here this way?

Like a record on your shelf

That you haven't played in ages

Would you leave us here this way?

Like a picture on your shelf

That you haven't seen in ages

This house seems fine without you now
