When I wake up all bottled up,
a ray of sunshine tells me I am not alone.
For two long days, I've missed your face,
'cause I'm in hell
and I just want you to come home.

All I am, all I see, all I am, all I bleed
I bleed.

I say I do,
anything for you,
I'm dying old,
I've come unglued.

I say I do,
anything for you,
I'm dying old,
I've come unglued.

For, for all I am,
for all I sing and all I was I swear I'm yours.
Find, find the time, when time is lost I feel like I am not alive.

All I am, all I see, all I am, all I bleed
I bleed.
I say I do,
anything for you,
I'm dying old,
I've come unglued.

I say I do,
anything for you,
I'm dying old,
I've come unglued.

I'm dying old.

When you're gone,
I sleep alone,
and there's the window,
that I deny.
