Pull the glass from your teeth
What good's what I don't want
What exactly does that mean
Oh God what have I done

But we could be everlasting
If that was the last thing on your mind
And you push, and you push,
And you push it to the ground
What exactly have you found
From years before

Castro Castrata
Means having not a
A fear in this world
This boy and stupid girl
Castro Castrata
Means having not a clue

No not a clue

Pull the glass from your teeth
What good's what I don't want
What exactly does that mean
Oh God what have I done

Yea you're out of control
When you're spinning around
Yea you take her all alone
What exactly have I found

We could be everlasting
If that was the last thing on your mind
And you push, and you push,
And you push it to the ground
What exactly have you found
From years before

Castro Castrata
Means having not a
A fear in this world

Castro Castrata
Means having not a clue
