

Meriwether "Come On"

The sun is barely shining on her face.
I take her hand so we can leave this place.
I can't make her go - she says "it's not quite time".
She's begging him for just another try.

Forgive me just one night.

Come on, come on, let me do this to you.
Come on, come on, let me do this to you.
Lalalalalaa lalalalalaa - I can't help myself.
So come on, come on, let me do this to you.

She stayed with me until the moon was dead.
But I wake up late and I'm alone again.
I can't make her stay - she says "it's just not right".
I will not argue; I won't start the fight.

Give me just one night.

Come on, come on, let me do this to you.
Come on, come on, let me do this to you.
Lalalalalaa lalalalalaa - I can't help myself.
So come on, come on, let me do this to you.

Stop lying to yourself.
Stop lying to yourself.
Stop lying to yourself and everybody else.
Stop lying to yourself, everybody else.

Come on, come on, let me do this to you.
Come on, come on, let me do this to you.
Lalalalalaa lalalalalaa - I can't help myself.
So come on, come on, let me do this to you.
