It's getting hard to fight
These things I feel inside
Little miss Adventure
Little miss Understand(ing)

I got your call at five,
It's raining hard tonight
Little miss Distraction
Little miss Behave

You're all alone,
You're skin and bones,
And you've been wasting all my time

You're coming back,
Like a heart attack,
And I hope that you get this right
Well, you can go
Straight to hell,
Cause I know what I want this time,

Leave me alone,
Bother someone else,
Cause you've been wasting all my time
With your bones

For every step I take,
A piece of me you break
Little miss Destruction
Little miss Demolition plan

If I make one mistake
You'll dig me my own grave
Little miss Believer
Little miss Fortunate

You're all alone,
You're skin and bones,
And you've been wasting all my time
You're coming back,
Like a heart attack,
And I hope that you get this right

Well, you can go,
Straight to hell,
Cause I know what I want this time,
Leave me alone,
Bother someone else,
Cause you've been wasting all my time
With your bones

All this time I've wasted to be
More or less unjaded
But I see red,
I see violent bloody red

Everything I am now could be
More or less a let down
So I can lie,
I lie golden in the grave

And I will be your lover
When hell freezes over
In America, America

I will be your lover

You're all alone,
You're skin and bones,
You're coming back,
Like a heart attack,

Well, you can go,
Straight to hell,
Cause I know what I want this time,
Leave me alone,
Bother someone else,
Cause you've been wasting all my time
