Well, call me if you wanna talk there's a telephone on your wall
And the reasons are many and not too far apart
If there's some blood left in your heart, well let him finally start
If you run you can catch me it's wide but not too short

I wanna hear the whistle blow and feelings go I wanna be done with everything I know

Difference is time, it's the best prison waiting in line Difference is time, it's yours and it's especially mine
Difference is time

It's hard to stand on my feet with this weight of vagrancy
I've been trying to tell the difference between the road and my street
But there's an end I wish you didn't eat when I'm done dancing to this beat On my headstone it will be written life is hard even if you cheat

I wanna hear the whistle blow and the feet is row
I wanna be doe with everyone I know

The difference is time, it's the best prison waiting in line
Difference is time, it's yours and it's especially mine
Difference is time, difference is time

Don't act like there ain't nothing wrong
With a switch like that it's just mean to keep it on Don't act like there ain't nothing wrong
With a switch like that it's just mean to keep it on

Difference is time, it's the past prison waiting in line
Difference is time, it's yours and it's especially mine
Difference is time, it's the past prison waiting in line Difference is time, I know she's yours but she's especially mine
Difference is time, difference is time

Difference is time, difference is time
She ain't yours and she sure ain't mine
She ain't yours and she sure ain't mine
Difference all the time, difference all the time
