"Lonely"

I was told to toe the line
instead I kissed the boys, and made them cry
And, still you think it's funny
I was late,
Well, God told me to wait
And in the end, when hearts were handed out
Some of us missed out

But if you're lonely,
Kiss the boys and make them cry
It only, hurts you for a little while
And we'll keep, turning,
Turning round the sun,
And all the days roll into one.

I took my time to look around
In love and all the places I have been
I pushed and stumbled in,
But I was late,
Still God told me to wait
And if I go up high on my trapeze
Lets hope that I don't sneeze

But if you're lonely,
Kiss the boys and make them cry
It only, hurts you for a little while
And we'll keep, turning,
Turning round the sun,
And all the days roll into one.

Georgie Porgie pudding and pie
Kiss the boys and make them cry
When the boys came out to play
Georgie Porgie ran away
Georgie Porgie ran away

But if you're lonely,
Kiss the boys and make them cry
It only, hurts you for a little while
And we'll keep, turning,

Turning round the sun,
And all the days roll, into into one.
And we'll keep, turning,
Turning round the sun,
And all the days roll, into into one.
And we'll keep, turning,
Turning round the sun,
And all the days roll, into into one.

If you're lonely
If you're lonely
Ahh
If you're lonely
If you're lonely
