Pull me 'round
And tell me that you'll never let me drown
Touch me slow
Like your fingertips might never let me go
But you know
That I'm caught between the magic that you gave me
And the fear that you might leave leave
Because it scares me
Stop this war
I wish we could leave things at the door
These feelings don't wash away
I wish there was more to me
More to say
But you know
That I'm caught in between the magic that you gave me
And the fear that you might leave
Because it scares me
That you could break my heart again so easily
Don't let us fall apart
Because it scares me
That you could break my heart again so easily
Don't let us fall apart
Run me through
Then pick me up and tell me what to do
Cut me then run away
I wish that there was more to this
Flesh to kiss
Flesh to kiss
