Dazed and confused, I'm full of fear
I lit another cigarette to ease my soul and Come together with all that's been said
And I found the reason that I raise my head

But I won't let you drag me down
You've got your head in the clouds
And I'm standing right here on the ground

But you want to let me go outside
And make me bleed
If you want to act just like a child
Then I'd have to leave
'Cause I won't let you drag me down

Tattered and worn, I've lost my mind
And I drank that whole bottle down
Just to pass all of my time
And I swallow my pride
From all that's been said
And I found the reason that I raise my head

But I won't let you drag me down
You've got your head in the clouds
And I'm standing right here on the ground

But you want to let me go outside
And make me bleed
If you want to act just like a child
Then I'd have to leave
'Cause I won't let you drag me down

Somebody's got to believe
These things are more than I need
There seems no end to this road that I'm traveling down

But you want to let me go outside
And make me bleed
If you want to act just like a child
Then I'd have to leave
If you want to let me go outside

And make me bleed
If you want to act just like a child
Then I'd have to leave
'Cause I won't let you drag me
