You can't count me out now
So I lead a little more
Change of desires makes me paranoid and stoned

Well I'm feeling agitated, so frustrated
To the point that you annoy

And I can't be wrong when I feel you falling
To rob me of my soul
And I don't belong here
With my fears exposed
Caught me feeling low
I'd rather be alone

And I have yet to see this
So-called animal
And the change of desires brings you
Closer to the fall

Well I'm feeling so frustrated, agitated
You can have it all

And I can't be wrong when I feel you falling
To rob me of my soul
And I don't belong here
With my fears exposed
Caught me feeling low
I'd rather be alone

And I can't be wrong when I feel you falling
To rob me of my soul
And I don't belong here
With my fears exposed
Caught me feeling low

And I can't be wrong
And I can't be wrong
And I can't be wrong
I'd rather be alone
