Moments and Smiles

The empty room prepares for the play

Consuming Malice

I stay strapped to the wires

Injecting Belief

Mindless and thoughtless

You'd like me to be

Push the levels

And ensure I enact

My shuddering spine

Electric questions asked

Till the answers I bleed

Repeat the process

Double-check for denials

Now everything is so pleasant

Right from my jaw-bone to my dying day

... my dying day

Falling of the Autumn Leaf

Doesn't seem to make much sense

To my foolish brain

... the one they turned insane

Nature has it's own way of subtle comparisons

Can you tell me... What is reality?

In reality?
