hung in your room , swaying hoping only that you'll see all by my self im alone in such poor company the deeper i think the deeper i seem to sink i can't stop the insects that are feeding pull the needles from beneath my skin i broke myself shattered tied a bow 'round every peice you'll love the eyes have they always shone so vacantly the more i show the less you'll wanna know
now im on display i am becoming hurt myself today it's all for you do you like do you like what im becoming cut myself today it's all for you please don't ask me just what i think trust me you don't wanna know please don't ask me to open up trust me trust cus i can't
