i hear these sounds in the day light.never heard them before in my life.i bureid the grave of the dead way back home.i fear is it the grave that's calling me.is it the crying of the dead.please get the dead to peace.i cant stand this anymore.stop the crying of the dead.
the dead...the dead is comin out.the deadthe dead is eateing me alive.save me mastersave me master...please....please!
from the dead...from the dead... the dead's eaten me alive.i'm ready to go to the grave.but the grave is not accepting me.neither can i go back home.the world seems so dead/the sins that i committed will never wash away.i'm ready to die with this pain i feel.but my grave has rejected me.the master's coming to save me i can't bear the crying of the dead...

but its ringing on my door...so i'm ready to die..
and cry like the dead.
