Metallica - The House Jack Built Lyrics

Open door so I walk inside

Close my eyes

Find my place to hide

And I shake as I take it in

Let the show begin

Open my eyes

Just to have them close again

Well on my way

But on my way where I've been

It swallows me

As it takes me in it's fog

I twist away

As I give this world the nod

Opens door so I walk inside

Close my eyes

Find my place to hide

And I shake as I take it in

Let the show begin

Open my eyes

Just to have them close once again

Don't want control

As it takes me down and down and down again

Is that the moon

Or just the light that lights this dead end street?

Is that you there?

Or just another demon that I meet

The higher you are

The farther you fall

The longer the walk

The farther you crawl

My body, my temple

This temple it tilts

Step into the house that Jack built

The higher you are

The farther you fall
The longer the walk
The farther you crawl
My body, my temple
This temple it tilts
Step into the house that Jack built

Open door so I walk inside
Swallow me so the pain subsides
And I shake and I take the sin
Let the show begin

Open my eyes
Just to have them close again
Well on my way
But on my way where I've been

Open my eyes
Just to have them close again
Well on my way
But on my way where I've been

Open my eyes
It swallows me
Is that you there?
I twist away
Away
Away
Away
