on a long and lonesome highway east of omaha you can listen to the engine's moanin out his one note song you can think about the woman, or the girl you knew the night before but your thoughts will soon be wondering the way they always do when you're ridin sixteen hours and there's nothing much to do and you don't feel much like ridin', you just wish the trip was through

CHORUS:

but here I am, on the road again here I am, up on the stage here I go, playing the star again there I go, turn the page when you walk into a restaraunt, strung out from the road and you feel the eyes upon you, as you're shaking of the cold you pretend it doesn't bother you, but you just want to explode sometimes you can here 'em talk, other times you can't all the same 'ole cliches: is that a woman or a man? and you always seem outnumbered, you dare not make a stand

out there in the spotlight, your a million miles away every ounce of energy, you try to give away and the sweat pours from your body, like the music that you play later in the evening, as you lie awake in bed with the echos of the amplifiers, ringin' in your head as you smoke the days last cigarette, remembering what she said
