If you're leaving, close the door
I'm not expecting people anymore
Hear me grieving, lying on the floor
Whether I'm drunk or dead I ain't really too sure

I'm a blind man, I'm a blind man, and my world is pale
When a blind man cries, Lord you know there ain't no
sadder tale.

(Lead - Hetfield)

Had a friend once in a room
Had a good time but it ended much too soon
In a cold month in that room
We found a reason for the things we had to do

I'm a blind man, I'm a blind man, now my room is cold.
When a blind man cries, Lord, you know he feels it from his soul.

Yeah!

(Lead - Hammett)

Yeahyeah! I'm a blind man, I'm a blind man, and my world is pale, Yeahyeah!
When a blind man cries, Lord you know there ain't no
sadder tale.
