Glamorous California

Can't take another nap. Life waits for you to rock, baby.
Your world will never stop. Is never late to say you're sorry.
Guarantee what you want for life. Make your story.
You don't have all the time you need. Get up and make your life better.
Party. Dance. Celebrate. You are not going to live forever.
Life is short and you gotta enjoy all the pleasure.

Can't take another nap. Life waits for me to rock,
baby.
My world will never stop. Is always late to say I am sorry.
I will go guarantee what I want for life. Make my story.
20 years is the beginning. Now I can see what I want.
Is see my name in spotlights with this old style font.
It is all a matter of time to become.

All the way from South America
to the Glamorous California.
A place where dreams come true
And nightmares become results.
All the way from South America
to the Glamorous California.
The land where you will lye forever.
Is it too good to be true?

Gucci, Fendi, Prada, Louis, Channel and Armani.
Plastic bodies on the beach always make you fell stoned.
The wind that blows my thoughts away makes it funny.
Driving on Sunset I see the glamour all around me
And I know it won't be too hard 'cause I always meant to shine
Take a ride in my way of life. You will like.

Shopping. Clubbing. Sipping. Trying to run away from the paparazzi.
They ask me if I am really happy. The answer is so clear and loud.
I am finally living what I always wanted and you don't.
I will never gonna give up on my life in this sunny spot
No matter what happens. This is where I feel stronger Hollywood feels so closed to me. Flavor of Money.

California. Sunny spot, nice place to live.
California. No more things you need to give.
California Change your mind you need to try.
California Good stuff you will certainly like.
