Like a vampire the world sucks your life away
Evil infestation thrives inside of you
Your infected brain leads you astray
Eyes so blind ears so deaf

Spirit trapped inside the sinful flesh shell
So wicked the taste of black
You must wash black taste away with blood
The pure blood of Jesus Christ

Walk away from the woods of the world
Let your fleshly carcass rot away
You don't need this world to live
In God's light you shall dwell

Unscale your eyes unplug your ears
Unharden your hearts and defy sin
The map to Heaven is Jesus Christ
Die with him rise with him

There's danger in the woods
Die to yourself or you walk dead
Don't Walk Dead
