Every time you come running
I Step back cause I see you coming
These past years should've made me stronger
Can't take it any longer
The sight of you it makes me sick
Your morning breath it smells like shit
The less I say about your friends,
Will work out better in the end

Maybe, I'll make it easy on myself
With a bullet to the brain
Cause after all we've been through There's not enough words to tell you how much I hate you

You are the one who would always say
You never really wanted things to work out this way
All the good times you were rarely sober
All of the rest, you were hungover
Now that's just one out of a few
Reasons I have as to why I can't stand you.
I wish I could tell you every line
But that would take me till the end of time.
