We have to believe it has to go on
We have to believe what we love will be gone.

So keep all hope inside
Keep on believing
And you know that you'll get by
Just keep on trying
Just keep your chin up, don't let life get you down.
Keep on believing
And you'll see that the best is yet to come
Just keep on trying

And you'll look back when the last day comes
And you'll know you done everything
And you'll see.

We have to believe it has to go on
Or we'll have to believe what we love will be gone.
We have to believe that it has to go on
You have to believe what we love will be gone.

So get up, take the ride,
Don't go along with the tide
Haters won't wish you well
Fuck them straight to hell
Every, Every, Everything will be ok
Every, Every, Everything will be ok
So when everything goes according to plan
And it falls into place in your hands
Know that you've done it all!

So start the Ride, Rollercoaster the rest of your life.
