Right is to search for the wrong which's the real
It's all for the mind but you live for the feel

Nothingness is the meaning of life
There's no you and no us
Look deep in the mirror
You'll see it in your eyes

Dream the same thing everynight
Hear the darkness over loud
No more silence, never free
Will things be better? I can not see!

Within the right side
Within the wrong side
You know the life is true
When there's nothing left to say
The truth will challenge you
You're living on lies!

Wrong is to cry for the vision of time
Unless we handle then who'll stop the crime

Nothingness is the meaning of life
When your hopes fade away
Trapped in this nightmare
You can't break away

Dream the same thing everynight
Hear the darkness over loud
No more silence, never free
Will things be better? I can not see!

Within the right side
Within the wrong side
You know the life is true
The truth will challenge you
You're living on lies!

Right is to know what you choose for your life
It's all for the dream and the dream is the life

Everything is the meaning of life
Unless you close your eyes
You're not for sale for any price
Make no compromise

Dream something different tonight
Play this music over loud
See you'll need no surgery
More things're better, you will see

Within the right side
Within the wrong side
You know the life is true
The truth will challenge you
You're living on lies!
