"No One Wins The Fight"

Visit "No One Wins The Fight" on MotoLyrics.com

Can not fight against, you'll watch them killing you You've born for nothing, you can't even choose your side
Which way is left, which way is right

Close my friend and feel me breathe
Forget that fucking fools Fucking lies and fucking sights and fucked up fucking rules
Tired of this circulation, years and years you'll search the reason

Kill! Fire! Destroy! Do just what I say Deff! Blind! Obey! And never. never say no!

Devil in your mind, dihumanized
You're suffering your pride
No one wins the fight!

You hear but never understand. You look but never see Hatred blinded your eyes forever... Sun will take this light
And stars will fall down from the sky... When the dark ages begin,
You'll open your eyes and turn back to me...
Then I'll give you the peace
