Visit "Eighth Wonder" on MotoLyrics.com

I climbed the old Great Wall and walked the streets of Babylon
Seen the Taj Mahal, the Tower of Pisa leaning on but Everything feels small compared with all we've got

[Chorus]

I've walked the earth and sailed the ocean blue
Seeking sunken ships and buried treasure too
But I've found the eighth wonder of the world
In the eyes of just one girl

I've seen the Eiffel Tower and I've seen Lady Liberty
The Grand Canyon and Pyramids don't mean a thing to me
Cause nothings quite as grand as just holding your hand

[Chorus]

From Carolina to the Western shore
The hills of China to the ocean floor
Oh, there's no discovery that means as much to me

Chours
