I knew that you'd free me
Never did leave me
And the chains on my soul
Were too comfortable to let go
And the life that I live
I'd forgotten how to give
I'd forgotten how to give
And my patience, my pride, and my soul

Crucify this day
So that I can see the way
Love your beloved
Show your resurrection
Through the way you've killed my pride
Please take control, please take control
And let me die, let me die

Let your life live on through me
Let your breath breathe on through me
So that they can see in me
How you love me

Crucify this day
So that I can the way
Love your beloved
And show your resurrection
Through the way you've killed my pride
Please take control, please take control
Let me die, let me die

Seems I've died to you a time or time or two
At least that's how it seems when I'm closest to you
I'm losing this world on place by place
Is realizing your embrace
So that can I can rest

Crucify this day
So that I can see the way
Love your beloved
Show your resurrection
Through way you've killed my pride
Please take control, please take control

Let me die, let me die
