You're knockin' on my door
Say you want me back again
Say you wanna try once more
But a broken heart don't mend

Wasn't all that long ago
You swore that we were through
Don't know what ya want from me
Don't know what I need from you

First you feel the pain
Then you start to cry
When someone breaks your heart
(Yeah)
Just makes you wanna die
(Ohh)
You feel you can't go on
Can't face another day
(Ooh I)
Until the hurt is gone
Love cuts you deep that way

I remember I gave my heart completely
I remember the lesson that you taught me

Love cuts deep
Baby, love cuts deep
And it leaves a scar
Right across your heart

First you feel the pain
Then you start to cry
(Ooh ooh)
When someone breaks your heart
Love cuts you deep inside

I used to call your name
But you were never there
And now you come to me
Expecting me to care

I remember the words you whispered to me

Like a knife, those words just cut right through me

Love cuts deep
Baby love, love cuts deep
And it leaves a scar
Right across your heart
(Ooh ooh)

You give your heart to somebody, yeah
You give your soul to someone, ohh
You love somebody, you love somebody
And they're gone, gone, gone, ohh

You gave your heart to somebody
You gave your soul to someone, hey
You loved somebody
(Somebody)
You loved somebody
Now they're gone, gone
Somebody finally taught you

Love cuts deep
Baby love, love cuts so deep
And it leaves a scar
Right across your heart

First you feel the pain
(Then you start to cry)
Baby, baby, love, love cuts deep
(Love cuts deep)
Baby love, love cuts so deep
(Love cuts deep)
And it leaves a scar
Right across your heart
(First you feel the pain
Then you start to cry)
Baby, baby, ohh ohh
Baby love, love cuts so deep, ohh
