One day you've got it made
Think you've finally got this whole thing figured out
Some nights you lie awake
Falling into something you can't live without
And it feels like you're holding on for life
Feels like you're finally letting go

Chorus:

Love ain't nothing but the beating of your heart
Waiting for a miracle, wishing on a star
Love ain't nothing but the air you gotta breathe
The song in your soul and the power of your dreams
When you find out what it means
Love is everything

It's the universal play suddenly you're lost inside the good thing you've found
Funny how it works that way (works that way)
Never see it coming til your world is upside down
And it feels like you're holding on for life
Feels like you're finally letting go

Chorus:

Love ain't nothing but the beating of your heart
Waiting for a miracle, wishing on a star
Love ain't nothing but the air you gotta breathe
The song in your soul and the power of your dreams
When you find out what it means
Love is everything

There's no feeling like the sweet surrender
When your world's been rocked
And there's no feeling like the one that makes you scream
From the mountain top (yah, yah, yah, yah)
(Don't you know love is everything)

Chorus:

Love ain't nothing but the beating of your heart
Waiting for a miracle, wishing on a star
Love ain't nothing but the air you gotta breathe

The song in your soul and the power of your dreams
When you find out what it means
When you find out what love means
Love is everything

(oh yes it is)]
Love is everything
(oh it's everything)
Love, (love) sweet love (sweet love)
Love is everything
(the beating of your heart, the power of your dreams)
Love, sweet love
Love is everything

Love heals everything
