Michael Bolton
"Survivor"

You can't believe that your whole world's shattered
You used to have it all under control
It's like you lost everything that mattered
And you're afraid to fall

You've been through it all too many times
And though I know your pain, without it there's no way
So they say, yeah, you're lying in the rain
Letting it fall across your face just to feel alive

So let's hear it for the ones
Who know what it feels like to survive a broken heart?
Put one hand up in the sky tonight
If you know what it feels like to survive a broken heart
Survivor of a broken heart, survivor of a broken heart

You're searching through all the thoughts you've gathered
And it feels impossible to make it through another day
Where do you turn when your faith's been shattered?
And nothing's logical

You've been through it all too many times
And you can feel your pain but you can't win before you lose
So they say you search for who's to blame
When you let go you find the truth is just to feel alive

So let's hear it for the ones
Who know what it feels like to survive a broken heart?
Put one hand up in the sky tonight
If you know what it feels like to survive a broken heart
Survivor of a broken heart, survivor of a broken heart

A thousand pieces on the ground
How do you put them back together, once again?
And when your world comes crushing down
That's when you rise and you find your way up
That's when you find out of what you're made of

So let's hear it for the ones
Who know what it feels like to survive a broken heart?

Put one hand up in the sky tonight
If you know what it feels like to survive a broken heart
Survivor of a broken heart, survivor of a broken heart
Survivor of a broken heart, survivor of a broken heart
