I know I owe it to a moment of weakness
Finally realized I'm not so strong
Told my heart I had enough
So I closed the door on us
But baby you proved me wrong

Now I remember what it's like to hurt so deep inside
But I never wanna know till you brought me back to life
Its been forever since I've loved somebody till I cried
Because of you, because of you
I can feel again, I can feel again
My heart was going through the motions of eden
And I was faking every breath I take
You taught me with a single kiss
The simple truth I almost missed
What goods a heart that can't break
Now I remember what it's like to hurt so deep inside
But I never wanna know till you brought me back to life
Its been forever since I've loved somebody till I cried
Because of you, because of you
I can feel again, feel my life begin
Put an end to all this emptiness and let you in Took me long enough but now I know
Never gonna let this feeling go, Oh baby
Now I remember what it's like to hurt so deep inside
But I never wanna know till you brought me back to life
Its been forever since I've loved somebody till I cried
Because of you, because of you
Baby everywhere you touch me makes my senses speak
Now I dream in loving color since you woke me from my sleep
Oh you'll never more wonder where the hell I've been
Because of you, because of you
I can feel again, I can feel again
