Everyday that passed me by
Would never wait for questions why
So I carried on Carried on
But when you feel alone inside
The only question on your mind
Is will I be enough
Will I be enough
For someone to trust and give their heart away
If I'm barely hanging on
But I feel like I finally found the answer
Cause I finally found somebody
Who makes me feel alive
And everything feels so right, so right
It's what you're doing to me
I used to be lonely
But now I'm falling in love
And everything feels so right, so right
It's what you're doing to me
I never thought I'd see the day
That I'd no longer be afraid
But I was wrong
I was wrong
Cause when it's close enough to taste
It's worth everything you've waited for so long
Waited for so long
Cause everything else doesn't matter
When it all comes down to love
And suddenly someone makes you better
I finally found somebody
Who makes me feel alive
And everything feels so right, so right
It's what you're doing to me
I used to be lonely
But now I'm falling in love
And everything feels so right, so right
It's what you're doing to me
And even if we move on
I know what I have found
I've come up too high
To crawl my way back down

What you're doing to me
I know that I'll never be the same
Cause I finally found somebody
And everything feels so right
(It's what you're doing to me)
Cause I finally found somebody
Who makes me feel alive
And everything feels so right, so right
It's what you're doing to me
I used to be lonely
But now I'm falling in love
And everything feels so right, so right
It's what you're doing to me
