All of this time, I've been tellin' myself the truth
I love you and that's the easiest thing to do, yeah
How do I describe, how ya turn my world around?
Ain't no wonder why those words are those ones I've never found

Oh girl, there's so much I mean to say
And I'll keep tryin' till I finally find a way

When we make love, heart to heart Speak from our souls, we come shinin' through the dark
We reach the stars still by far the deepest part [Unverified] the [unverified] when the tears begin to fall
When there really are no words that's when we say it all

And how many times when you're lyin' close to me Have ya shown me, baby, how much in life don't really mean a thing?
All that matters and in all the world remain
Is your love and all ya mean to say

And then, hey baby, the heaven in your eyes
Is all I see that means everything to me

When we make love, heart to heart
Speak from our souls, we come shinin' through the
We reach the stars still by far the deepest part [Unverified] the [unverified] when the tears begin to
When there really are no words that's when we say it all

There's a power in the silence
Where the truth is just too much
There's a place of pure emotion
Words were never meant to touch

When we make love, heart to heart
Speak from our souls, we come shinin' through the

We reach the stars still by far the deepest part [Unverified] the [unverified] when the tears begin to
When there really are no words that's when we say it all

When there are no words
That's when we say it
'Cause there are no words
When we say it there are no words
