I had joy and I was strong and I was good at holding on and I had heart and I had soul and if I wanted to I could even make it snow anytime

Did I look desperate to you or did it look like I knew what I was doing well all that is true but as the days get longer I can't remember if I'm getting worse or getting better at playing this part now where did it start

I had joy and I was strong

Did I run circles around your heart it was a private mission it's an old tradition that I cannot stop
'cause if I do they'll catch me and they'll never let me keep my secret weapon hidden in the bedroom at the top of the stairs man, I hope it's still there

All I wanna do is run all I wanna do is fly I've been saved so many times just from staring at the sky I'm still staring at the sky and I'll never understand why

I know my way through these woods and though the paths have faded and the trees have shaded where my heart once stood still I still feel it beating all the years mean nothing I am still believing I can see the touching of my soul and the sun I close my eyes and I've won

oh where did that little girl go I need to find her
I need to find her so I can get through this show do you know?
