Well, come on in and grab yourself a seat
There are some people here I think you should meet
Listen to the voices, look at these eyes
Some faces you might recognize
You are one of us.

Well, you are headed down the highway, suddenly jackknifed
And when somebody blows a hole in your life
And now your bed's too big and your pillow is too small
You gotta try and make sense of it all

You are one of us.

Here is where we live
It's who we are
It's where we live
It's who we are.

Well, the walls are made for silent debating
And the windows are for watching and waiting
Emptiness is the foundation
Yeah, soul and center of our little nation
You are one of us.

One of us.

Here is where we live
It's who we are
It's where we live
So, who will live
Where we are
It's where we live
It's who we are
It's who we are.

Oh!
