Walk with me until we find an empty street
I'll kiss you on the mouth and sweep you off your feet
OMG, you're the one for me

Usually I'm more than just a little shy
But I can never stand to watch you pass me by
OMG, you're the one for me

You just say one word, and O-O-OMG
Suddenly the world stands still
And I just can't believe
You're making me weak at the knees
OMG

Talk with me until it's almost 5 AM
And I'll be sneaking out right as the sun sneaks in
OMG, you're the one for me

I'll tell you that I've never ever felt this way
I'll tell you that I think the feeling's gonna stay
OMG, you're the one for me

You just say one word, and O-O-OMG
Suddenly the world stands still
And I just can't believe
You're making me weak at the knees
OMG

And I've never been someone
Who needs someone to be someone
But you pulled my loose heart string
And they all came undone

You just say one word, and O-O-OMG
Suddenly the world stands still
And I just can't believe
You're making me weak at the knees
