My life has taken me beyond the planets and the stars
And you're the only one that could take me this far
I'll be forever searching for your love
Hooo-oooh
Whooo

I walked away but I was wrong
(I cant make it another day)
You're the one that makes me strong
(I cant make it anther day)
You're the fire that keeps me warm
(I cant make it another day)
How did I get through this storm
I cant wait another day without your love)

(come on,now)
(hoo-hoo)

At night(at night) I pray before I sleep in hopes of finding you (finding you)
I open up my heart I want you to come through
I closed my eyes searching for your love
Hooo-oooo
Whoooo

I walked away but I was wrong
(I cant make it another day)
You're the one that makes me strong
(I cant make it another day)
You're the fire that keeps me warm
(I cant make it another day)
How did I get through this storm
(I cant wait another day without your love)

I walked away but I was wrong
(I cant make it another day)
You're the one that makes me strong
(I cant make it another day)
You're the fire that keeps me warm
(I cant make it another day)
How did I get through this storm

(I cant wait another day without your love
