Too late
Too late
Too late

In this automatic age
We shop through the yellow page
Gone is the corner store
There's a supermarket there for you

People give way to change
But feelings remain the same

And it's too late, too late to change the time
Well, it's too late, too late to change the time
And it's too late, too late to change the time
But it's not too late to change your mind

It's a new day, a new age
A photograph is taken, it's ready one minute later
Cars are bigger and better
But the manufacturer's satisfied never
In a world full of crime, I can't let you think that's right

And it's too late, too late to change the time
And it's too late, too late to change the time
And it's too late, too late to change the time
But it's not too late to change your mind
No, no

So you wanna be a star
You are who you think you are
You don't have to go further
Than my loving arms

And it's too late, too late to change the time
But it's not too late to change your mind

Are you sure you wanna go to New York City?
Where girls make it big if their pretty
Let say you get that penthouse view
But who's gonna love you the way I do

It's too late, too late to change the time
And it's too late, too late to change the time
No, too late, too late to change the time
But it's not too late to change your mind
Yeah, yeah, yeah

It's too late, too late to change the time
It's too late, too late to change the time
Oh, too late, too late to change the time
But it's not too late to change your mind
Yeah, yeah, yeah

Too late, too late
