She said that the body she was born, it was wrong kind She wears black, red and all that, to hide who she is inside
Tomboy, tomboy, tomboy, you are accepted the way you're There's no one, to tell you otherwise, keep your head up high Tomboy, tomboy, tomboy, you are moon you are a star You shine to peoples lives, bring back the the hope and a smiles
There's no one, to tell you can't Because you can if you want
No one can let you down and tell you can't
To be that you feel in your heart
