Yeah yeah
Yeah

This love is the only thing
Pinning our future to the past
And what we have will always be
The part of this living that lasts

Baby, here I stand unafraid
To forsake this world for your tenderness
I'm reachin' out, I can't give up, no no

Sometimes it seems to me
That this world is only where we start
For all it's wonder I still believe
The answer lies deep within our hearts

Baby, here I stand unafraid
To give myself, to be set free
In love we find there is no end
We've always been and we'll always be

Everlasting
Everlasting
Everlasting

Here I stand unafraid
To forsake this world for your tenderness
I'm reachin' out, oh I can't give up
'Cause nothing matters but your lovingness

Everlasting
Oh everlasting
