Well Judas swore to Jesus
"Man, I could never turn you in."
Jesus turned the other cheek and said
"You're gonna let the Devil win."
Corruption's still the word today
It's the same old sin
Keep It Up. Keep It Up.
You get what you give and you gotta live
Keep It Up.
Can't you see, you can't stop this crazy scene
Well I've walked the earth for a thousand years
I know the story well
Well you can't go wrong when you live that long
I've done my time in this hell
You wanna see World War Three,
Well, well, well, well, well
Keep It Up. Keep It Up.
Ain't got much time, better make up your mind
Keep It Up.
Just let it be, you can't stop this crazy scene

When Jesus comes back He's gonna be riding in a shiny limousine
'Cause He's gotta look good for the headline news
And the cover of a magazine
We know money and power is the key to this whole scene
Keep It Up. Keep It Up.
Ain't got much time, gotta make up your mind
Keep It Up.
It's so obscene, makes no sense to me.
Keep It Up. Keep It Up.
Ain't got much time, gotta make up your mind
Keep It Up. Uh, uh, uh
Keep It Up, though it makes no sense
You gotta Keep It Up, see what you get!
Keep It Up. Keep It Up.
Ain't got much time, gotta make up your mind
Keep It Up. Keep It Up. Keep It Up. Keep It Up.
