"The River Of Time"

I'm not through loving you
Its just that you're gone
Nothing I can say or do
Can undo what's done

You took my heart along
When you went away
I gave all my love
I'll get it back someday

In the river of time
I'll forgive and forget
Sweet peace of mind
Will be just 'round the bend

I'll stay afloat
On the tears that I cry
And let the memories all
Go down the river of time

I'll never be over you
Just over the pain
Moments of hope will shine
Through the hours of rain

I'll count them, every one
Till I start losing track
I'll make it through this night
And get the morning back
