"Sight Of Love"

I'm in the palm of your hands tonight.
Having trouble sleeping.
I'm wonderin' if you're thinking of me.
And wonderin' if you're dreaming of me.

Take a drive to you on my...
And wake you in the middle night.
And ask you if you're dreaming of me.
Cause you know I'm thinking of you.

Oh, the sight of love.
Can you make you wanna turn your life around.
Make you wanna live for someone else.
Someone who relies on no one else.

I'm holdin' on to all I know
And all I know is letting go.
I'm feeling like I'm taken under.
I'm loving every second of it.
This could take a day or so.
Convince you what I already know.
And then you'll say you'll never wonder.
What life could be with another.

And I'm holding on to you.
No one else will ever do.

Oh, the sight of love.
Can you make you wanna turn your life around
Make you wanna live for someone else.
Someone who relies on no one else.
