(Eph. 5:25-28)

Lyin' here by your side, the silence speaks to me
I've got no where to hide
Except in your misery
I've said I love you before, I said I love you,
But I've never showed you
Baby I'm sorry once more, for what I've put you through
Can we dream about tomorrow, tonight,
Oh baby
And we'll dream that everything's gonna be alright
I've got a thousand prayers, each one is for you and I
Lord knows I really care for you baby,
I would live and die for you
I know I've hurt you before,
I know I've hurt you, now I wanna heal you
Baby I'm sorry once more, for what I've put you through
REPEAT CHORUS
I know you've cried many rivers,
And you've cried your oceans too
If I'm the reason we've withered,
Let me bring back the water and sun
So our love can bloom
