(Heb. 13:15)

Don't turn against your heart
When love is on the line
You know you'll never find another love like mine
I'm forever yours
I live within your soul and together we'll grow old
And you'll never be alone
forever by your side
'Cause true love never dies
And I'll be your candle in the darkness
And I'll be your shelter from the rain
And I'll be the miracle that saves you
And makes you live again
And I'll be yours
I'm forever yours
Forever by your side 'cause true love never dies
I'm forever yours
This love's beyond the stars
Runs deeper than the heart
Can never comprehend
There's no need to pretend
My home is where you are
Oh, and when forever comes
'oo' I will be the one
To sweep you off your feet
And make your world complete
Until your life is gone
I'll be the melody that moves you
I'll be the song that breaks your heart
And I'll be the memory that haunts you
Lying in the dark, forever yours
I'm forever yours
Forever by your side
'Cause true love never dies
I'll be your candle in the darkness
And I'll be your shelter from the rain
And I'll be the miracle that saves you
That makes you live again, forever yours
I'm forever yours
Forever by your side 'cause true love never dies
I'm forever yours
You know you'll never find

Another love like mine
I'm forever yours
