I need You today
Here right beside me
I'm losing my faith
I feel like I'm dying (but I want to live)
I begin to fly
And then I am grounded
The rain begins to dry
Only to be pounded (that's when I need to know)
(Chorus)
If You're Miles Away
If You're in another place
If I'm lost without a trace
What I would do to know You
What I would give to run to You
I'm breaking from deep within
These miles away
This life's taken the peace
That once was within me
I want to believe
That You gonna save me (but my doubt conceives)
(Chorus)
That You're Miles Away
That You're in another place
And I'm lost without a trace
What I would do to know You
What I would give to run to You
I'm crumbling from deep within
These miles away
(Bridge)
Are You Miles Away?
Are You in another place?
I'm I lost without a trace?
What I would do to know You
What I would give to run to You
I'm bleeding from deep within
These miles away
