(2 Corinthians 2:17-18, Psalms 84:2)

A pale empty room, but I am not alone

Silence becomes me, You are here

And as you touch me, I feel your gentle way

Your spirit guides me, I am yours

You have made me and saved me, You hold my life

You've taken my transgressions, I am whole once more

CHORUS

Father, Son and Spirit, work through me as One

Hold me in Your presence Lord, for I am Your child

Naked before You, oh God yet I stand clothed

When in Your glory, there is no shame

You speak to my heart as You would a friend

Because of Your own mercy, I'm Yours eternally

CHORUS

Father, Son and Spirit, work through me as One

Hold me in Your presence Lord, for I am Your child

You have made and paid for my salvation

And I feel in Your presence, as if I'm drunk with wine
