My steps were wandering
My lips were hungry
My heart was thundering
For something more than all those things

My words were crying out
My faith was darkened out
My life lost without
This one amazing love

Washing over me like rain
Conquering the fear and pain
My broken path was not in vain
Glory Hallelujah, glory Hallelujah
Glory Hallelujah, glory Hallelujah

Washing over me like rain
Taking all the fear and pain
My broken path was not in vain
Glory Hallelujah, glory Hallelujah

I lift my blinded eyes
Towards the souls denied
And saw the One who died
For one amazing love
Hallelujah

One amazing love
Just one amazing love
Hallelujah, Hallelujah
Just one amazing love
Just one amazing love
