Caught again ~ Your faithless friend
Don't You ever tire of hearing what a fool I've been?
Guess I should pray ~ But what can I say?
Oh it hurts to know the hundred times I've caused You pain
Though "forgive me" sounds so empty when I never change
Yet You stay and say "I love you still"
Forgiving me time and time again

It's Your stubborn love that never lets go of me
I don't understand how You can stay
Perfect love embracing the worst in me
How I long for You ~ stubborn love

Funny me ~ Just couldn't see
Even long before I knew You, You were loving me
Sometimes I cry ~ You must cry too
When You see the broken promises I've made to You
I keep saying that I'll trust You though I seldom do
Yet You stay and say You love me still
Knowing someday I'll be like You

And Your stubborn love, it never lets go of me
I don't understand how You can stay
Perfect love embracing the worst in me
How I long for You ~ stubborn love

It's Your stubborn love that never lets go of me
I don't understand how You can stay
Perfect love embracing the worst in me
And You never let me go
I believe I finally know
I can't live without Your stubborn love
