i'm giving you a doctrine of vanity look into the mirror, tell me what you see, look into the mirror and
tell me it's not me they're still hungry, their souls are greedy, they want more, i'm feeling poor, real facts they ignore, information don't gain, situation general pain, endless luxury, dreams of power, valid currency, aplastic tower, global destruction i read, from profusion they feed, they increase quality of their own, among us profits are unknown, state of disorder pollution, incurable, no solution oppression, it's like a disease, among the weak-minded it bleeds, a perfect house a perfect wife, a perfect car a perfect life, it's all good, it's alright, among us day not so bright, now you learn now you see that our life is just a tragedy that we live in, law an order, consept of morality, incomplete depravity, individuals, autocratic,
solid, force of static
i'm giving you a doctrine of vanity
mirror and
